Eastern Caribbean-Roundtrip Miami

December 12, 2010 (7 nights)
Royal Caribbean's Liberty of the Seas

A splendid ship...

Liberty of the Seas is one of the biggest ships afloat, and filled stem to stern with amazing features. Should you want a break from bridge, it's all there: serene spas and sports facilities of every kind (you can even surf on board!), casino fun, movies and live shows, charming shops, fine dining and fun, casual cafés and lounges and lovely staterooms.

What's not to like?

Dec. 12, 2010 - Depart Miami. South Florida's exciting, international city is much more than the gateway to Latin America. It's one of the world's most popular destinations. With its world-renowned beaches, unrivaled nightlife, unique culinary experiences and Latin flavor. If you're not from the area, we recommend a tour of the city before the ship departs.

Dec. 14, 2010 - at sea

Dec. 15, 2010 - Phillipsburg, St. Maarten. When the Spanish closed their colonial fort on St. Maarten in 1648, a few Dutch and French soldiers hid on the island and decided to share it. Soon after, the Netherlands and France signed a formal agreement to split St. Maarten in half, as it is today. Philipsburg displays its Dutch heritage in its architecture and landscaping. The island offers endless stretches of beach, beautiful landscapes and great shopping.

Dec. 16, 2010 - San Juan, Puerto Rico. One of the largest islands in the Eastern Caribbean, Puerto Rico's landscape encompasses mountains, underground caves, coral reefs, white-sand beaches and an incredibly massive rain forest that supplies fresh water to most of the island. At the same time San Juan, the capital of the commonwealth, is a big city with a bustling shopping district, as well as glitzy resorts and casinos,

Dec. 17, 2010 - Labadee, Haiti. On the north coast of Hispaniola, surrounded by beautiful mountain slopes and exotic foliage, sits Labadee®, Royal Caribbean's private paradise. This exclusive destination offers pristine beaches, breathtaking scenery and spectacular water activities. Labadee's native charm, along with its natural beauty, make this a destination not to be missed, and only Royal Caribbean can take you there.
