Jeff Spurgeon began his career in New York radio in 1989, when he joined Mix 105's morning team. Spurgeon joined WQXR in 1997, and in 2006 he became the station's morning host. Over the years, Spurgeon has hosted broadcasts from Carnegie Hall, Trinity Church, the Caramoor Festival, and Tanglewood Music Center, as well as from the Czech Republic; Lucerne, Switzerland; and Salzburg and Vienna, Austria. Spurgeon is also a singer. He has performed with several New York City choruses and he is a member of an a cappella quartet whose repertoire ranges from Renaissance masters to original arrangements in modern styles.

Spurgeon has been journeying with Alice Travel for almost ten years. His knowledge of music—both as a radio personality and performer—and his enthusiasm for exploring the history and cultures throughout the world have made him one of our most popular celebrity hosts.

A Fascinating Itinerary... The Parthenon, the Sphinx, the Wailing Wall and the Vatican—places of exceptional religious, cultural and historical importance that have survived centuries...

Oct. 10 - Depart Athens, Greece. Occupied since 3000 BC, Athens has a rich history unearthed by all who visit. Hadrian's Arch, the Temple of Olympian Zeus, and the Theater of Dionysos, famed as the finest concert hall in Greece, must be explored. Tour the interior of the Acropolis and museum.

Oct. 11 - Mykonos, Greece. Few places in the world compare with Mykonos. Here you'll find whitewashed houses clinging to cliffs against a backdrop of indescribably blue sea. Follow a maze of tiny streets, visit one of the world's most superb beaches, or see the mythical birthplace of Apollo, the island of Mykonos.

Oct. 12 - Rhodes, Greece. Rhodes welcomes you with seemingly eternal sunshine thanks to more sunny days than any other place in Europe. This sunny retreat is also home to many historic sites ranging from the ruins of the Temple of Venus to the medieval Street of Knights.

Oct. 13 - at Sea

Oct. 14 - Haifa, Israel. The roots of this city, on the slopes of the Carmel Mountains, can be traced back to 4th century B.C. Gaze in awe at the Bahai Temple and its breathtaking gardens, which sprawl from the top of Mt. Carmel into its foothills.

Oct. 15 - Jerusalem, Israel. Jerusalem is only a short ride from the port city of Ashdod. Visit the Old City, the Western Wall, the Dome of the Rock, the amazing Israel Museum and the moving Yad Vashem. Walk through the market, experience the sights and sounds of the new and the old. Optional private excursion for Jeff Spurgeon guests.

Oct. 16 - Port Said, Egypt. On the northern end of the Suez Canal, this vital port city of aged houses and grand balconies is a gateway to Cairo, Giza plateau and the unparalleled wonders of ancient civilization: the Pyramids of Giza, the Sphinx, the Egyptian Museum, the Nile River, the "Hanging Church," Al-Azhar Mosque and the Citadel. Optional private excursion for Jeff Spurgeon guests.

Oct. 17 - Alexandria, Egypt. Alexandria is Egypt's second largest city and its largest seaport. Known as The Pearl of the Mediterranean, it's found by many to have an atmosphere and culture that is more Mediterranean than Middle Eastern.

Oct. 18-19 - at Sea

Oct. 20-21 - Sorrento, Italy. Found on Italy's famed Amalfi Coast, the city of Sorrento is set atop some of the Mediterranean's most breathtaking cliffs. Close to Pompeii and a short boat ride to the must-see Isle of Capri, this quaint city will no doubt leave you wanting to return.

Oct. 22 - Disembark Rome, Italy. Rome is nothing less than spectacular! Visit the Roman Forum, Trevi Fountain, the Pantheon, Piazza Navona; you might also want to see the interior of the Colosseum. Be sure to take in Vatican City, St. Peter's Basilica, the Vatican Museum, the Sistine Chapel, and the interior of St. Peter's Square. The Eternal City has much to offer. If you want more of "la dolce vita", ask Alice Travel to arrange a post-cruise stay.

On Azamara's Journey, you'll experience a voyage tailor-made for today's discerning traveler. In addition to butler service in each suite, Journey offers her guests more verandas than most cruise ships. With only 694 guests, the atmosphere is both relaxing and intimate.

Journey also features two specialty restaurants, concierge amenities, a state-of-the-art Spa and Wellness Center, a coffee café, a piano bar, Martini Bar and a wine bar, live entertainment, and daily enrichment programs. eConnections will enable guests to share their voyage with friends and family back home.

You must book with Alice Travel to participate in Jeff Spurgeon's program.
