Your hosts: Gail Greenberg and Jeff Hand

If you're a bridge fan from the NYC area, you probably already met them - Gail and Jeff are the two most popular and successful bridge teachers and bridge champions around the Big Apple.

Gail is a 6-time World Champion Gold Medalist, a Grand Life Master, an author, and a founder of two of the very biggest bridge clubs in the USA—Honors Bridge Center in Manhattan and Hartes Bridge Club in White Plains.

Jeff is a US and Panama national champion and international champion, and an ACBL diamond life master. In 2008, Gail and Jeff won the national mixed pairs championship.

The Crystal Symphony

On a Crystal Cruise you're in a private world of casual, easy-paced luxury—guaranteed. After all, Crystal has been voted "World's Best Large Ship Cruise Line" by the Travel & Leisure Reader's Poll for 13 consecutive years!

The Crystal Symphony features a lavish Feng Shui-inspired spa, extensive exercise facilities, complimentary golf, yoga and Pilates instruction, acclaimed cuisine in the Crystal Dining Room, the intimate Vintage Room, the Sushi Bar, and Italian specialty restaurant Prego, the Crystal Casino, the Computer University@Sea offering 24-hour e-mail and internet access, as well as hands-on instruction. So there's plenty to amuse and delight when you're not playing bridge, or taking in the incomparable sights on your cruise.

- Private get-togethers with Gail and Jeff
- Gail and Jeff present separate lectures daily for different levels of play
- Supervised play and duplicates almost every day and evening duplicates as well.
- Fabulous optional extensions on British Isles cruise—pre-cruise bridge program in London and post-cruise tennis package for Wimbledon.

Costa Rica to Miami via Panama Canal: Feb. 3-14, 2010 (11 days)

A perfect "winter buster" for any bridge fan! Start in Costa Rica, with its lovingly conserved tropical ecology...a spectacular transit of the Panama Canal...an exotic chain of Caribbean ports.

Feb. 3: Depart Caldera, Costa Rica. This peaceful little eco-paradise is sometimes known as the "Switzerland of Central America".

Feb. 4: Cruise the Pacific Ocean.

Feb. 5: Transit the Panama Canal. An amazing human achievement, and an experience you'll never forget!

Feb. 6: Cruise the Caribbean Sea.

Feb. 7: Oranjestad, Aruba. Aruba mixes dramatic desert countryside with splendid beaches, Dutch Colonial and Caribbean cultures.

Feb. 8: Cruise the Caribbean.

Feb. 9: Castries, St. Lucia. A lovely, lush isle that changed hands often in Colonial days. French and British styles predominate.

Feb. 10: St. John's, Antigua. White beaches and casual Caribbean charm, and rich in British Colonial history.

Feb. 11: Roadtown, Tortola. This is the largest of the British Virgin Islands, and Roadtown is the very British capital. There's a lot of pirate history hereabouts!

Feb. 12-13: Cruising the Atlantic Ocean.

Feb. 14: Disembark Miami, Florida.

British Isles, roundtrip London: June 14-21, 2010 (7 days)

A week in June to remember! This great cruise takes you on an unusual loop to the top of the Irish Sea between England and Ireland, and back to London, for seven fascinating summer days.

June 14: Depart London (Dover). Take time to sample London: castles, pubs, museums, theaters, shopping! The ship sails near the legendary White Cliffs of Dover.

June 15: St. Peter Port, Guernsey. On one of the lovely, rural Channel Islands, picturesque St. Peter Port is full of fascinating local craftsmen, and walking is rewarding.

June 16: Waterford, Ireland. Gateway to all the great sightseeing in southeast Ireland, and a fascinating historic town in its own right.

June 17: Dublin. "Charm" and "Dublin" are synonymous! Lovely architecture and setting, and a hip, convivial culture. Visit the fascinating Guinness museum and see the Book of Kells at Trinity College.

June 18: Belfast. Victorian grandeur mixes with quaint lanes, friendly pubs, and boutiques in this famous shipbuilding city.

June 19: Liverpool. See the magnificent Town Hall, Walker Gallery, and the upscale shops of the restored Albert Dock. A great port proud of its fascinating history.

June 20: Cruise the Irish Sea/English Channel.

June 21: Return to Dover.

OPTIONAL EXTENTIONS:
Pre-cruise: June 11-13 bridge camp in London including lessons, bridge clinic, local duplicate and theatre package.
Post-cruise: Wimbledon extension.
