Larry Cohen and Bernie Chazen shared more than a close friendship. Like Bernie, Larry makes learning bridge fun. His lectures are laced with humor and his style is easy-to-follow and informal. And, like Bernie, Larry makes himself available to his cruise guests 24/7.

Larry is the only bridge teacher who uses the new VuGraph presentation screen in his lectures, allowing his students to see the hands being played.

About Larry...

Larry started playing duplicate at age 14 and was in tournaments at age 15. He was a Life Master at 17 and won his first National Championship at age 22. He is the winner of 26 national championships.

Larry has lectured on land and at sea all over the world and is one of the most popular bridge teachers. He has also written award-winning bridge software.

Larry wrote To Bid or Not to Bid about the LAW Of Total Tricks—the best-selling bridge book of the 90s—and the sequel, Following the LAW, which has also been a best-seller. Larry's new book, published in 2009 is My Favorite 52.

A Fascinating Itinerary

Warm waters, wonderful places to visit, and four leisurely days at sea gives us plenty of time for bridge lessons and play and enjoying good company.

Dec. 27, 2010 - Depart Ft. Lauderdale. Ft. Lauderdale is a year-round destination where culture and cuisine are in ample supply. If you have time before the sailing, enjoy its beautiful beaches, night-clubs and superb restaurants. Must shopping is on Las Olas Boulevard or Himmarshee in downtown.

Dec. 28, 2010 - at sea

Dec. 29, 2010 - Cozumel, Mexico. The gem of the Mexican Caribbean, the waters and coral reefs off Cozumel are world-renowned as a diving destination.

Dec. 30, 2010 - Puerto Costa Maya, Mexico. This port city offers a variety of shore excursions that can take you to the interior of Mexico to explore Mayan ruins, ancient forts and villages, or storybook lagoons and beaches for aquatic recreation.

Dec. 31, 2010 - Roatan, Honduras. Roatan has become one of the premier diving destinations in all the world. Numerous wrecks, a fringing coral reef and bountiful marine life are the primary attractions. Roatán is also blessed with some of the most beautiful beaches in the world.

Jan. 1, 2011 - at sea

Jan. 2, 2011 - Colon, Panama. Panama's second-largest city lies at the eastern end of the Panama Canal. Here, you'll be able to venture into the Canal Zone and witness two of the world's most significant man-made marvels: the canal itself, an engineering feat on par with the Pyramids of Egypt, and the world's largest man-made lake lying just beyond the Gatun locks.

Jan. 3, 2011 - Cartagena, Colombia. Founded in 1533, Cartagena is the picture-perfect Spanish-colonial village. A fortress wall surrounds the historic village's pastel-colored architecture, quaint streets and fine cathedrals. Stroll through the walled old town and shop the boutiques.

Jan. 4, 2011 - at sea

Jan. 5, 2011 - George Town, Grand Cayman. Stingray City, named as one of the most rewarding experiences in the undersea world by National Geographic, allows swimmers to mingle with stingrays. Soft white-sand beaches and sensational duty-free shopping abound on this island of treasures.

Jan. 7, 2011 - Disembark Ft. Lauderdale.
