Aboard the Equinox

The Celebrity Equinox made her inaugural voyage in August, 2009 and shimmers with sophistication from bow to stern. Delight in a choice of ten exceptional dining venues; relax in spacious and well appointed accommodations; or get fresh green grass between your toes at the unprecedented Lawn Club. Lose yourself in the deeply indulgent AquaSpa which offers a pleasurable array of mind and body-soothing treatments. Enjoy a variety of top-notch evening entertainments.

Back by popular demand after a fabulous 2011 holiday sailing...our own dynamic duo...

Larry Cohen and Jerry Helms

Larry Cohen is well known among bridge enthusiasts for his ability to make learning fun. His lectures are accented with humor and he shares his vast knowledge in an informal style that's easy to follow. A superb bridge cruise host, Larry makes himself available to his guests 24/7. He has written award-winning bridge software as well as several best-selling publications: To Bid or Not to Bid about the LAW Of Total Tricks and the sequel, Following the LAW. Larry's latest book, published in 2009, is My Favorite 52.

Jerry Helms is a professional bridge player, writer and teacher, who specializes in group seminars. As a player, he has appeared 25 consecutive times on the annual American Contract Bridge League (ACBL) "Top 500" list. Jerry is a featured columnist for both Better Bridge Magazine and the ACBL Bulletin. His byline for both magazines is "Ask Jerry."

Our Itinerary

Dec. 31, 2012 - Depart Fort Lauderdale. Celebrate New Year's Eve on board the Equinox with our opening duplicate game and party as you set sail into the Caribbean.

Jan. 1, 2013 - At sea. Your first day at sea, the first full day of Larry and Jerry's bridge program—and the first day of a brand new year!

Jan. 2, 2013 - Cozumel, Mexico. Cozumel's duty free port is popular with the many tourists who visit each year. But Cozumel's major claim to fame is the beautiful reef below the waters surrounding the island, now protected as Cozumel Reefs National Marine Park.

ure trove of Mayan ruins, ancient forts, and villages nestled in a lagoon-laced landscape.

Jan. 4, 2013 - at sea.

Jan. 5, 2013 - Puerto Limón, Costa Rica. Costa Rica has been a staunch advocate of conservation in its undeveloped areas and its tourist destinations for years. Puerto Limón is an excellent place for excursions to nearby nature preserves that allow the visitor rare exposure to virgin rain forests and bird sanctuaries.

Jan. 3, 2013 - Puerto Costa Maya. Not a typical resort, this port is specifically designed to accommodate cruise ship passengers with relaxing seaside amenities, but is also a gateway to a treasure

Jan. 6, 2013 - Colón, Panama.

As the world's second largest duty-free port, Colón offers abundant shopping. It also represents the gateway to numerous sites of ecological interest, including Chagres National Park, a 3,000,000-acre rainforest preserve, and the Gamboa Rainforest Preserve, which lies within Soberania National Park.

Jan. 7, 2013 - Cartagena, Colombia.

This historic port city is one of the most beautiful in all the Caribbean. 18th century walls and forts around the old town defended it against pirates who attacked Cartagena for the looted Indian treasure brought there to be shipped to Spain. Today it is pirate-free, full of greenery, flower-draped balconies, shops, plazas, and prosperous markets.

Jan. 8, 2013 - At sea.

Jan. 9, 2013 - George Town, Grand Cayman.

Once a hideout for some of the most notorious pirates in history, Grand Cayman, the largest of the three Cayman Islands, is now host to visitors eager to experience snorkeling among the rays and observing sea turtles

Jan. 10, 2013 - At sea.

Jan. 11, 2013 - Disembark, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

Prices include Full Bridge Program, Prepaid Gratuities, and Port Charges
