HAWAIIAN SERENADE

Roundtrip San Diego

CRYSTAL  CRUISES

Crystal Cruises 6-Star Symphony

From $8,749 per person

*San Diego, Oahu/Honolulu, Kauai/Nawillwili,
Maui/Lahaina, Kailua-Kona/Hawaii,
Ensenada/Mexico, San Diego*

The 6-Star Newly-Designed Symphony

In October 2017, the 50,000-ton Crystal Symphony emerged from her longest-ever makeover, a multi-million-dollar Evolution of Crystal Luxury featuring spacious new suites and penthouses, new and expanded dining options with open seating, and more state-of-the-art technologies including free, unlimited Wi-Fi. The transformation reduced the guest capacity to just 848, thereby increasing service and space ratios to be among the industry's loftiest.

Let the warmth of Pacific trade winds wrap your holidays in sunshine as you play bridge onboard, delight on tropical beaches, swim in crystalline waters and relish the welcoming spirit of the Hawaiian islands.

Dec. 21 - embark San Diego.

Dec. 22 to 26 - cruising the North Pacific Ocean.

Dec. 27 - Oahu/Honolulu (8:00 AM to 11:59 PM). Welcome to Oahu, Hawaii's great gathering place...Asian and American influences combine to create a lifestyle where the tropical tempos of Polynesia prevail and the aloha spirit pervades every aspect of the culture. Honolulu and Oahu are the center of island life and boast sandy beaches, endearing smiles and exotic tropical flowers. Elegant resorts and towering high-rises line the gentle curve of Waikiki Beach. In the distance, majestic Diamond Head Crater lies on the horizon beyond your Crystal ship. Relive the historic events of Pearl Harbor, explore tropical rainforests or witness the creation of island culinary magic.

Dec. 28 - Kauai/Nawillwili (7:00 AM to 6:00 PM). Kauai is known as the "Garden Island." Fewer people live here than on the larger neighboring islands, but Hawaiian residents and out-of-state visitors alike are attracted to its much-acclaimed beaches, rugged emerald-colored cliffs, cascading waterfalls and magnificent sandy shores. One of the most enticing spots on earth, secluded coves are found all along the island's irregular coastline and luxuriant rainforests flourishes on the "wet" side of the island.

Dec. 29 - Maui/Lahaina (7:00 AM to 11:59 PM). In addition to possessing marvelous beaches, this second-largest island of the Hawaiian archipelago boasts one of the great natural wonders of the world—Haleakala, the largest dormant volcano on the planet. Cradled on its western shore at the foot of Puu Kukui is picturesque Lahaina, now designated a national historic landmark. In days gone by, it was one of the principal whaling centers of the Pacific. Now it brims with reminders of its legendary seafaring past.

Dec. 30 - Hawaii/Kailua-Kona (7:00 AM to 6:00 PM). Kona encompasses the western coast of the Big Island and lies at the foot of towering Mauna Loa and Mauna Kea. Here one finds bright, clear days and magnificent sunsets. You won't want to miss the eerie Volcanoes National Park. In contrast, the string of dazzling resorts that have sprung up along the coast present quite a different face. Lush landscapes and gardens have been created over what were once only lava flows. At the center of this transformation is the bustling town of Kailua.

Dec. 31 to Jan. 3 - cruising the North Pacific Ocean.

Jan. 4 - Ensenada, Mexico (5:00 PM to 8:00 PM). Ensenada and its environs are famous for many things: the sunny and mild weather, which helps yield fine wines considered to be the best in Mexico, several celebrated surfing spots including San Miguel Beach, and off-road racing with the annual Baja 1000 and Baja 500. Migrating gray whales draw their fair share of travelers as well.

Jan. 5 - disembark San Diego.
